Old & New Business/Coach Updates

Bob Erickson updated the Association on current varsity numbers. There are consistently 20 kids out, with some struggling with grade issues. The Association discussed providing any assistance they could to help out. Bob also indicated that the Boyceville match would be a scrimmage, as opposed to a match as Bob added the Osceola tournament. There may be a potential of wrestling middle school and youth matches that evening as well. There is a Boyceville tournament on January 15. Isaac will get info to Jamie. Chad touched on the Altoona tournament. He's having trouble with the weight classes. He'll discuss further at practice.

Greg Weaver discussed the PK-2 program. He indicated about 25-30 kids are out. Numbers are down from last year. Chad Olson also indicated that the numbers are down in the 3/4th grade as well.

Kay Capra indicated that more photos should be sent to the Advocate. Jackie and Kay have volunteered for this.

Isaac indicated that wrestling should be promoted year-round – get the wrestling logo out there in the community by raking leaves, etc.

The youth tournament was discussed. Everything should be set. Jim Sparish said the food is okay; Kay will look for a kitchen employee. Chad, Brad, Greg, Jerry and some others will set up the gym on Saturday night. We'll have 8 mats in the high school and one or two in the middle school for grades 5-8. Registration will be Gina, Judy, Jill and Kay.

Isaac said the clothes were in. He'll have them here on Sunday.

Kay talked about State tickets. They haven't arrived yet – she ordered 40, and has 20 spoken for.

The Association decided that they will no longer solicit businesses for poster donations.

A $50.00 donation will be given to Ritchie Narges for the 5th quarter celebration.

The next scheduled Association meeting is February 3, 2010 @ 6:30 p.m. in the High School Library.
